Hon'ble J.C.S. Rawat, J.

Learned counsel for the petitioners stated that he wants to withdraw the writ petition.

It was pointed out by the learned Standing Counsel that there was an interim order dated 15.05.1999. The interim order is quoted hereunder:-

> "In the meanwhile operation of the impugned order dated 20.01.1999 so far as it relates to the reversion of the petitioner from the post of untrained Revenue Inspector to the post of Patwari shall remain stayed. However, the respondents are at liberty to make regular appointment on the post of Revenue Supervisor in accordance with law."

It was pointed out that the petitioners retained the office by the interim order of the court and the petitioners would also be getting salary of the Revenue Inspector during that period. It was pointed out that while dismissing the petition it may be directed that the salary which the petitioners had drawn under the judicial order, it would not be counted towards the computation of the pension. As such, the petitioners would not get any benefit of the salary drawn last for the computation of the pension.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn with the above observation.
